

Fitflooring recognises it's duties under the Health and Safety at Work Act 1974 and it is the stated intention of Fitflooring to provide, so far as is reasonably practicable the safe conditions of work for employees, self-employed individuals, and subcontractors.

Fitflooring commits fully to the implementation of the procedures stated within this policy and ensures that our working operations do not have an adverse effect on the health, safety and welfare of any other persons who may be affected by the actions of the company. We will set improvement objectives when required and assess achievement of them at least on an annual basis.

Fitflooring will provide such information, training, supervision, plant and equipment as necessary, to identify, eliminate or control hazards and risks at the workplace. Adequate resources will be provided for this purpose.

Any Company employee who supervises or manages the use of work equipment shall have received adequate training for the purposes of health and safety, including training in the methods which may be adopted when using the work equipment, any risks which such use may entail and precautions to be taken.

Fitflooring also have a statutory duty to take reasonable care for their own safety and the safety of any other person who may be affected by their acts or omissions and also to co-operate with Fitflooring in its arrangements to conform or comply with statutory safety obligations.

Dave bailey at fitflooring Health, Safety and Welfare and is to whom reference should be made in the event of any difficulty arising in the implementation of this Policy.

Fitflooring is to manage site inspections and workplaces to ensure compliance with health and safety law.

This Statement of Company Policy will be displayed prominently or made available at all sites and workplaces.

This Policy will be reviewed on an annual basis to reflect any changes in legislation.

